

NICK PRICE --- FILM EDITOR

Email : jessopprice@googlemail.com

Mobile : 07904 206963

Website : www.ngjp.co.uk

IMDB : <http://www.imdb.com/name/nm4236450/>

KIT : Avid Media Composer, FCP 7, Da Vinci Resolve 15, including offline & online workflows
HD/SD Tape & Tapeless workflows, including RED/S-log and other post techniques

Recent significant highlights include:

- 2 x BAFTA awards in 2013 and BAFTA nominations in 2014 and 2015
- Series editor for Dog Rescuers for Channel 5, Obs-doc
- 90min Drama Doc, shot in a seamless style documenting one mans journey through life
- 3 x 30min docs for BBC about the History of Protest, Drug Stories, and Exploring India
- A short documentary, Perpetual Peace for an Evening with Mark Rylance on behalf of the charity Peace Direct
- A series of films about Zambia, part of a long running relationship with a rural school
- Series of films for teachers in India with the Open University, leading on the post production in five Indian languages
- Over the past 15 years I have worked on over 150 films for the Open University, covering social care, language, education, and religion

Goldrush White Water – Revelations (2019) Observational series, following the Dakota boys as they dredge for gold in the wilderness of Alaska.	1 x 60'	SP: Tim Dalby Raw for Discovery
Yorkshire Steam Railway (2019) Observational series following the characters of one of the old working steam railways in the world.	1 x 60'	SP: Marcus Sulley - Darlow Smithson for Channel 5
Til Death Do Us Part (2018) New Drama Doc series investigating the apparent murder of a wife by her husband, with testimony from perpetrators and key contributors.	1 x 60'	Exec. Suzanne Lafferty Lightbox for Discovery
My Life: Looking After Lambs (2018) Observational film following a 13 year old boy for a year, helping his mum run a farm in rural mid-Wales.	1 x 30'	Dir. Matt Wicks Evanswoolfe for CBBC
Saving Britain's Wildlife (2018) New Observational series shadowing RSPCA crews as they battle to save wild animals affect by human interactions.	2 x 60'	Exec. Andrew Eastel Middlechild for Discovery
I Am A Killer (2018) A Netflix original documentary series, with original testimony from death row inmates in US prisons and interviews with key contributors.	2 x 60'	Dir: James Tovell / Zoe Hines - Sky for Netflix
And The Winner Isn't (2017) Satirical observational feature doc, following Geoff Moore, son of Roger, as he goes in search of how to win an Oscar, to raise money for UNICEF.	1 x 90'	Dir: Nik Panic
David Jason's Secret Service (2017) Sir David Jason travels across Europe searching for the truth behind Britain's espionage history.	3 x 60'	Dir: James Tovell for October Films/ Channel 4
Where in the World (2017) 20 part series for CBeebies following eight children in different countries around the world, capturing a unique insight into childhood across the planet.	20 x 15'	Dir: Rhonda Evans for CBeebies
Cradle to Grave (2016) Feature Doc. Fully dramatized documentary following a man's life from his conception to his death. Using interior body archive and CGI. Sole editor, dealing with the whole post process including the CGI pipeline.	1 x 90'	Dir: James Tovell for Pioneer Productions / NatGeo
Demolition Man (2016) Obs-doc presenter led series looking at demolition jobs around the globe. Following highly skilled specialists as they tear down bridges, prisons, cooling towers and footballs stadiums.	1x30'	Series Producer: Andrew Eastel , Middlechild Productions for Channel 5
BBC Bitesize (2016) Four series on GCSE Geography, GCSE History, KS3 Art and English Functional Skills. Using innovative graphics, drone footage, as well as traditional presenter led programmes, giving students in depth knowledge for the latest curriculum.	24x5'	Dir: Dominic Sant BBC Bitesize
Nazi Megastructures (2016) Documentary looking at the Japanese defense of the Island of Okinawa during World War II. With dramatic reconstructions, archive, expert interviews and observational sequences.	1x60'	Director: Ashley Morris Darlow Smithson for NSC / PBS
The Dog Rescuers (2015) Observational Doc following RSPCA officers as they investigate crimes of abuse against dogs, from initial discovery to the courtroom. Presented by Alan Davies	1x60'	Director: Nigel Gainsborough Middlechild Productions for Channel 5
Animal Fight Night (2015) Archive based documentary examining the battles between animal world adversaries, dissecting the science behind the tactics and techniques that various creatures employ.	1x60'	Series Producer: Amy Foster, AP: Tod Grimwade Arrow Media for NatGeo
Exploring India (2015) BAFTA nominated documentary . Investigative documentary - Three children explore how protest has impacted society over the past 200 years.	1x60'	Dir: Dominic Sant BBC 2 / Learning
Protest (2014) Investigative documentary - Three children explore how protest has impacted society over the past 200 years.	1x30'	Dir: Rhonda Evans BBC 2 / Learning

Drug Stories - (2014) - Four young people tell us the story of their traumatic experience with drugs.	1x30'	Dir: Tristan Anderson BBC 2 / Learning
Dark Matters (2012) 13 part Drama-Doc exposing some of history's most bizarre experiments, and delving into the most unusual research ever conducted.	1x60'	Dir: Amy Foster, Wide Eyed Entertainment - Discovery
Exploring the Past (2013) BAFTA nominated documentary . Investigative doc - Six children explore the lives of a family member during the years following world war 2.	1x60'	Dir: Rhonda Evans BBC 2 / Learning
Just a Few Drinks (2013) BAFTA winning documentary - Four young people tell us the story of their traumatic experience with alcohol - with reconstructions.	1x30'	Dir: Tristan Anderson BBC 2 / Learning
Children of World War II (2012) BAFTA winning documentary - A three part history series introducing primary age pupils to what life was like for children during World War 2.	1x60'	Dir: Tim Duck/Evans Woolfe BBC 2 / Learning
Academies and Lies (2013) follows parents and teachers from Downhills School as they try to stop Education secretary, Michael Gove, forcing their school to become part of the Harris academy chain - www.academiesandlies.org.uk	1x60'	Dir: Rhonda Evans Online Distribution
Working with Autism (2012) Two films following the difficulties of working with people on the autistic spectrum. Depicting	2x15'	Dir: Anne Parisio - Evans Woolfe / Social Care TV
Lizard Boy (2011) Short film (fiction) about a boy with a secret - starring Oscar nominee Ron Moody with Julian Rhind-Tutt, Crispin Bonham-Carter.	1x20'	Dir: James Tovell Jolt Films
Worlds of English (2011) Series exploring the use of English around the world, from the ghettos of Capetown, the migrants of Canada, and the multi-lingual society in Singapore.	3x30'	Dir: Mark Galloway BBC / Open University
Perpetual Peace (2010) Documentary: Interviews from around the world concerning peacekeeping: including Africa, Argentina, Croatia, France, featuring Bob Geldof, Tony Benn, Harold Pinter, George Monbiot, Noreena Hertz & Scilla Elworthy	1 x 90'	Dir: Jonathan Holmes Jericho House
SuperMe (2010) Selection of documentaries and short films designed to help teenagers be better at life!	8x15'	Dir: James Tovell Ch 4 / Somethin' Else
A-Z of GCSE Coursework &amp; Exams (2009) Archive-style programme, fast cut snippets of good techniques	2x15'	Dir: Beth Newell - Brook Lapping / Teachers TV
Quentin Blake on his Illustrations (2009) Interview based Doc, with the world famous illustrator.	1x15'	Dir: Colin Izod Big Heart / Teachers TV
Persecuted Teachers (2008) Documentary, with archive, revealing the plight of teachers around the world, including Afghanistan and Indonesia	1x30' 1x15'	Dir: Mark Galloway Evans Woolfe / Teachers TV
School Matters: Primary MFL (2008) Observational actuality based programme. Teaching guru John Bayley visits North Carolina to help a local high school.	1x30'	Dir: Beth Newell - Brook Lapping / Teachers TV
Syria: Iraqi Children Speak (2009) BAFTA nominated documentary Following the plight of Iraqi children and teachers living as refugees in Syria.	3x15'	Dir: Lucy Thwaite Teachers TV
Bayley in the USA (2007) Observational actuality. Teaching guru John Bayley visits North Carolina to help a local high school.	1x30'	Dir: Chris Guiver Teachers TV
The Market (2005) Exciting observational series following an eclectic mix of the stallholders of Camden market as they try to survive.	5x30'	Dir: Rhonda Evans Channel 4
Global Citizenship (2006) Three part ob-doc series from India, Pakistan and Kenya to inspire children to think about conditions in the developing world. Nominated for a One World Media Award.	2x30' 3x10'	Dir: Rosa Rogers Teachers TV

REFERENCES

Vanessa Tovell : COO, Lightbox
Ashley Morris : Freelance Director
Harvey Woolfe : Director, Evans Woolfe Media